

The CBA's current challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy law should be denied. There is no legitimate need to weaken or change this act. It should stand as the people of the state of Indiana intended it to and not be modified to suit big business,
Dale F Brown